FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Land Advisors Organization Strengthens Dallas Market Expertise for 2010

January 4, 2010 (Phoenix, Arizona) – Land Advisors Organization, a premier land brokerage firm headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona, today announced that Landry Burdine and Austin Reilly have joined the organization as Designated Broker and Dallas/Fort Worth MSA Specialist, respectively, for their Dallas/Fort Worth office. Burdine and Reilly will be responsible for facilitating and executing all land transactions in the Dallas/Fort Worth market, focusing on raw, undeveloped land or improved land ready to be redeveloped for residential, commercial or industrial use within the metropolitan area.

Burdine joins Land Advisors Organization with nearly 11 years experience in land acquisition, disposition and development activities. Prior to joining the Land Advisors Organization, Burdine operated his own real estate firm which also focused on land brokerage and development in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. His deep experience and knowledge of the market compounded with his proven abilities for site acquisitions, dispositions and the marketing/sale of real estate has made him one of the top land brokers in Dallas/Fort Worth. Burdine's understanding of the complexities of large real estate transactions is a valuable asset when assisting buyers with the feasibility of land.

Land Advisors Organization is also pleased to welcome Austin Reilly, as a Dallas/Fort Worth MSA Specialist. Austin has specialized in investment acreage transactions as well as ranch and commercial property brokerage assignments for a wide range of clients.

"Landry is a consummate professional who has developed a truly first rate land brokerage practice and we are pleased to have him on board. He is an ideal fit with our existing real estate business model and is part of our drive to strengthen our position as a leading nationwide land brokerage firm," says Brian P. Rosener, President, Land Advisors Organization. "We are proud to have these two market experts leading our Dallas/Fort Worth office, as they possess unparalleled experience and the unique knowledge required to successfully represent our clients in large scale land acquisitions and dispositions."

The Land Advisors Organization's Dallas/Fort Worth office is located at 500 Main Street, Suite 600, in Fort Worth, Texas 76102. Burdine and Reilly can both be reached at 214.550.1550.
